Opening Affirmation

Sunshine Cathedral is a different kind of church where the past is past and the future has infinite possibilities.

The Call to Worship

This is the day our God has made.

Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Service of Praise

Processional Hymn

Walking in Sunlight, all of My Journey

Walking in sunlight all of my journey, over the mountains, thought the deep vale;

Jesus has said, 'I'll never forsake thee,' promise divine that never can fail.

Heavenly sunlight, heavenly sunlight, flooding my soul with gory divine;

hallelujah! I am rejoicing, singing praises, Jesus is mine.

Trials around me, troubles above me never conceal my comfort and guide;

Christ is my joy in whom is no sadness; ever I'm walking at Jesus' side.

Heavenly sunlight, heavenly sunlight, flooding my soul with gory divine;

hallelujah! I am rejoicing, singing praises, Jesus is mine.

In the bright sunlight, ever rejoicing, pressing my way to visions of love;

Singing Christ's praises gladly I'm walking, walking in sunlight, light from above.

Heavenly sunlight, heavenly sunlight, flooding my soul with gory divine;

hallelujah! I am rejoicing, singing praises, Jesus is mine

Opening Prayer

Rev Dr Anne Atwell

Spirit of life,

we come together during this season of Eastertide to rejoice in the ongoing song of life that is within us and around us.

In this season of renewal, of life bursting into bloom or song, remind us that we have an inner beauty, reflecting the image of your creative power.

Spirit of Resurrection, remind us of the power of hope to triumph over fear, the power of love to prevail over the horrors of hate,
the potential for peace to be victorious over hostility.

We pray for all that is still possible, but not yet fulfilled...

Spirit of life, as we feel you flowing and pulsing within, we pray for a courageous and joyous faith, empowering us to become our finest and truest selves, empowering us to see your image in our neighbors, empowering us to participate with you in the creation of a new time of life, in which love, justice, beauty and peace are abundantly available to all.

In faith we pray.

Amen.

Sung Response

Now the Green Blade Rises

Now the green blade rises from the buried grain, wheat that in dark earth for many days has lain.

Love lives again, that with the dead has been: Love is come again like wheat that rises green.

The Gospel According to Luke (24.13-24, 28-35)

Rev Dr Anne Atwell

Peter...looked in the tomb and saw a few grave clothes, that's all. He walked away puzzled, shaking his head.

That same day two of them were walking to the village Emmaus, about seven miles out of Jerusalem. They were deep in conversation, going over all these things that had happened. In the middle of their talk and questions, Jesus came up and walked along with them. But they were not able to recognize who he was.

He asked, "What's this you're discussing so intently as you walk along?"

They just stood there, long-faced, like they had lost their best friend. Then one of them, his name was Cleopas, said, "Are you the only one in Jerusalem who hasn't heard what's happened during the last few days?"

He said, "What has happened?"

They said, "The things that happened to Jesus the Nazarene. He was a man of God, a prophet, dynamic in work and word, blessed by both God and all the people. Then [he was betrayed, taken into custody, and executed]! And we had our hopes up that he was the One, the One about to deliver Israel. And it is now the third day since it happened. But now some of our women have completely confused us. Early this morning they were at the tomb and couldn't find his body. They came back with the story that they had seen a vision of angels who said he was alive. Some of our friends went off to the tomb to check and found it empty just as the women said, but they didn't see Jesus."

They came to the edge of the village where they were headed. He acted as if he were going on but they pressed him: "Stay and have supper with us. It's nearly evening; the day is done." So he went in with them. And here is what happened: He sat down at the table with them. Taking the bread, he blessed and broke and gave it to them. At that moment, open-eyed, wide-eyed, they recognized him. And then he disappeared.

They didn't waste a minute. They were up and on their way back to Jerusalem. They found the Eleven and their friends gathered together, talking away: "It's really happened! The Master has been raised up...!"

Then the two went over everything that happened on the road and how they recognized him when he broke the bread.

In these human words, God's voice is heard.

Thanks be to God.

Prayer

Rev Kevin Tisdol

One: May our spiritual journeys lead us to moments of clarity, empowerment, and renewed hope.

All: Amen.

Please rise as you are able.

Ac-Cent-Tchu-Ate the Positive

You've got to ac-cent-u-ate the positive, e-lim-inate the negative, latch on to the affirmative, don't mess with Mister In-between.

You've got to spread joy up to the maximum, bring gloom down to the minimum, have faith or pandemonium li'ble to walk upon the scene.

We better ac-cent-u-ate the positive, e-lim-inate the negative, latch on to the affirmative, don't mess with Missus In-between.

No, don't mess with Missus In-between.

You've got to ac-cent-u-ate the positive, e-lim-inate the negative, latch on to the affirmative, don't mess with Mister In-between.

You've got to spread joy up to the maximum, bring gloom down to the minimum, have faith or pandemonium li'ble to walk upon the scene.

We better ac-cent-u-ate the positive, e-lim-inate the negative, latch on to the affirmative, don't mess with Missus In-between.

No, don't mess with Missus In-between.

Bless Us All

*Bless us all who gather here
The loving family I hold dear
No place on Earth compares with home
And every path will bring me back from where I roam*

*Bless us all, that as we live
We always comfort and forgive
We have so much that we can share
With those in need we see around us everywhere*

*Let us always love each other
Lead us to the light
Let us hear the voice of reason
Singing in the night
Let us run from anger
And catch us when we fall
Teach us in our dreams
And please, yes please bless us one and all*

*Bless us all with playful years
With noisy games and joyful tears
We reach for you and we stand tall
And in our prayers and dreams we ask you
Bless us all
We reach for you and we stand tall
And in our prayers and dreams we ask you
Bless us all.*

One: Spirit of Community, in which we share and find strength and common purpose, we turn our minds and hearts toward one another seeking to bring into our circles of concern all who need our love and support: those who are ill, those who are in pain, either in body or in spirit, those who have lonely, those who have been wronged. We call to mind leaders of nations. We seek to bless our Sunshine Cathedral and all who have requested our prayers. We remember also our (+) dearly departed, thankful that they live on in our hearts and love. We are part of a web of life that makes us one with all humanity, one with all the universe. We are grateful for the miracle of consciousness that we share, the consciousness that gives us the power to remember, to love, to care. And with people all over the world we pray –

All: May peace prevail on earth.

These prayers we offer in the spirit of Jesus, son of Mary, and as he did we continue to pray:

Model Prayer

*Creator which art in heaven, hallowed be thy names.
Thy kin-dom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And leave us not in temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.*

Please be seated.

Communion Songs

I Love Myself the Way I Am

*I love myself the way I am, there's nothing I need to change.
I'll always be the perfect me, there's nothing to rearrange.
I'm beautiful and capable of being the best me I can; and I love myself just the way I am.*

*I love you, the way you are, there's nothing you need to do.
When I feel the love inside, it's easy to love you.
Behind your fears, your rage and tears, I see your shining star, and I love you just the way you are.*

*I love the world the way it is, 'cause I can clearly see that all the things I judge are done by people just like me.
So 'til the birth of peace on earth that only love bring, I'll help it grow by loving everything.*

*I love myself the way I am, and still I want to grow, but change outside can only come when deep inside I know:
I'm beautiful and capable of being the best me I can; and
I love myself just the way I am.*

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Rev Kevin Tisdol

Please rise as you are able.

The Prayer of Protection

*The light of God surrounds us; the love of God enfolds us.
The power of God protects us; the presence of God watches over us. Wherever we are, God is.*

Benediction Rev Dr Durrell Watkins

Final Song This Little Light of Mine

*This little light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine.
This little light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine.
This little light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine,
Let it shine, let it shine, let it shine.*

*Everywhere I go, I'm gonna let it shine.
Everywhere I go, I'm gonna let it shine.
Everywhere I go, I'm gonna let it shine,
Let it shine, let it shine, let it shine.*

His husband, Dr. Bob Graham, was a pioneering member of the Sunshine Cathedral Foundation’s Board of Governors and when Dr. Graham died, Paul filled his seat on the Board and served faithfully for the rest of his life. Paul was a leader and contributor to the Sunshine Cathedral Memorial Chapel and Columbarium and also a patron of the building which bears his name, the Graham/Fasana Center. Paul was a librarian and archivist, as well as a philanthropist. Most importantly, Paul Fasana was a good person with a loving heart and he will be missed. Let light perpetual shine upon him.

SAINTS OF THE WEEK

April 13: Frederick Bailes (1889-1970)

- Was a medical student from New Zealand. He had to drop out of medical school because he was diagnosed with diabetes (at the time considered to be untreatable). He found the writings of Thomas Troward and with the help of spiritual principles, found himself cured of his diabetes. He returned to medical school. He found that encouraging his patients made a noticeable difference in their recovery. He went on to become a Religious Science minister and writer. His books include Your Mind Can Heal You and Hidden Power for Human Problems. He wrote, “Our world will change as our ideas concerning ourselves change. So never be afraid to think highly of your value.”

April 14: Origen (185-254)

- A theologian in the early church. He taught universal salvation (no one is ultimately rejected by God). He believed that any idea of eternal damnation was unworthy of a good God, the God Jesus knew and shared. He thought only an insane deity would punish someone for all eternity, and he did not believe God to be insane. He allowed for biblical literalism for those “at that level” of understanding, but encouraged people to seek “higher” understandings of scripture.

April 17: Lillian DeWaters (1883 – 1964)

–A Christian Scientist who expanded into broader New Thought. She was known as a spiritual healer. She lectured widely and gave private instruction at the Astor Hotel in NYC. She wrote over 40 books on spirituality. She encouraged: “Remember that some feet will tread all heights now unattained. Why not thine own? Press on! Achieve! Your dominion is ever within thee, waiting your command to set you free.”

God is Within

by George Stuart, a retired minister from Australia living in Canada (ProgressiveChristianity.org)

Now, my theological imagination includes the idea of God as the Divine Energizing Force which is present in everything and everybody; always has been and always will be... This Divine Energizing Force is inherent, an aspect that is an inseparable dimension of everything and everyone, including you and me. So for me, God is not a separate being but an inseparable feature of me and you. God is part of who I am and I am part of who God is. God is in me and I am in God...

 Everything that exists had a sacred dimension for Jesus.
 We can learn godly things from the ordinary. God is never absent, but always present in all things...

The way Jesus lived, his actions and his deeds show me that he was 'God saturated', 'God filled'; that he was in God and God was in him. I imagine this as God within.
 Jesus, and the way he lived, is an excellent example of what a human life looks like when we cooperate fully with God Within. I believe we can imagine this as God Within us. Can we be 'God saturated'? I believe so.

God is love and when we love we manifest God. We expose God in our midst. We are profoundly blessed to be part of this experience.

We are thankful that, at times in our lives, we are prompted to be forgiving. We are prompted to be generous. We are prompted to serve others. We are prompted to be considerate and kind. We are prompted to be good. From time to time we all experience these promptings. Where do they come from? Let us imagine that these promptings are God within us...

So we affirm our commitment to be kind.
 Are willing to be a gift of love and generosity to others?
 Can we be thankful for these intentions and will we work hard to make them happen?
 Can we seek the way of the Spirit of Life and Love?
 I believe Jesus shows us that way.

When we cooperate with the good spirit within us, what I call God Within, human virtue is the result. I believe this good spirit is what makes us human; is what challenges us to want to love and care for each other and for all that is around us; is what prompts us to be honest and responsible; is what joins us with others in our efforts to build a better world.

I relate to the humanity of Jesus because I can see what a human being can do and be. If he has special qualities that I do not share, then, for me, he is not one of us. If he is God, then for me, he is not one of us. If he is human, I can relate to him. For me, he is then one of us. God is in him and he is in God just like all of us. He had a divine dimension the same as we have.

I have been taught to glorify Jesus. I want to acknowledge him as my mentor, teacher and guide.

I have been taught to pray to Jesus. In my imagination, I wish to pray with him.

I believe the Cross of Jesus defines him and his message.
 The Cross was inevitable, given the way he lived and what he taught. The possibility of suffering and conflict did not distract him from what he believed was his mission in life.
 Suffering and conflict were certainly not foreign experiences for him. The gospel stories tell us that Jesus struggled; he was tempted to change course; he sweated blood in his decision making; he thought at one stage that God had abandoned him. Yet, he never let go of his personal dignity, his strength of purpose, his integrity, his willingness to take responsibility for his actions, his will to love and forgive others, right to the very end. This end of his life shows me what a human being can endure and can achieve.

Jesus was betrayed, but he loved his betrayer.
 His disciples all ran away and left him, but he loved each one.

Jesus was denied, but he loved his denier.
 Jesus was falsely accused, but he loved his accusers.
 He was abused, but he loved his abusers.
 Jesus was cursed, but he loved those who cursed him.
 His mother grieved for him, and he loved her.
 Jesus was killed, but he loved his killers.

What amazing inspiration.
 What intense humanity.
 What provocative challenge.
 What a man!
