This is the day our God has made.

Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Service of Praise

Processional Hymn

Called as Partners in Christ's Service

Called as partners in Christ's service, called to ministries of grace, We respond with deep commitment fresh new lines of faith to trace.

May we learn the art of sharing, side by side and friend with friend, Equal partners in our caring to fulfill God's chosen end.

Christ's example, Christ's inspiring, Christ's clear call to work and worth, Let us follow, never faltering, reconciling folk on earth.

Men and women, richer, poorer, all. God's people, young and old, Blending human skills together gracious gifts from God unfold.

Thus new patterns of Christ's mission, in a small or global sense, Help us bear each other's burdens, breaking down each wall or fence.

Words of comfort, words of vision, words of challenge, said with care, Bring new power and strength for action, make us colleagues, free and fair.

So God grant us for tomorrow ways to order human life That surround each person's sorrow with a calm that conquers strife. Make us partners in our living, our compassion to increase. Messengers of faith, thus giving hope and confidence and peace.

The Decalogue

Deacon Michael Karben

Let us recall the commandments by which we seek to live:
1. Worship nothing other than the omnipresent, eternal God.

2. Do not try to confine God to any image.

3. Do not use God's name in hurtful or hateful ways.

4. Remember a day each week for worship and renewal.

5. Honor your elders.

6. Do not murder.

7. Do not break sacred vows.

8. Do not steal.

9. Do not bear false witness against anyone.

10. Do not begrudge whatever good fortune your neighbor may enjoy.

St. Paul taught that love is the fulfillment of the law. Jesus said that loving God and neighbor is the message of the law and the prophets. We keep the commandments when we live in love. May the world know us by how loving we are.

Amen.

Sung Response

Ubi Caritas

*Ubi caritas et amore, ubi caritas Deus ibi est.
Live in charity and steadfast love, live in charity;
God will dwell with you.*

Service of Proclamation

A Reading from the Epistle of James (1.17-27)

Rev Marian Cavagnaro

Every generous act of giving, with every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Creator of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change.

In fulfillment of the divine purpose God gave us birth by the word of truth, so that we would become a kind of first fruits of creation.

You must understand this, my beloved: let everyone be quick to listen, slow to speak, slow to anger;

for your anger does not produce God's righteousness.

Therefore rid yourselves of all sordidness and rank growth of wickedness, and welcome with meekness the implanted word that has the power to heal your souls.

But be doers of the word, and not merely hearers who deceive themselves.

For if any are hearers of the word and not doers, they are like those who look at themselves in a mirror;

for they look at themselves and, upon going away, immediately forget what they were like.

But those who look into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and persevere, being not hearers who forget but doers who act--they will be blessed in their doing.

If any think they are religious, and do not bridle their tongues but deceive their hearts, their religion is worthless.

Religion that is pure and undefiled before God, is this: to care for orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

In these human words, God's voice is heard.

Thanks be to God.

Sung Response

Gloria, Gloria

*Gloria, Gloria, in excelsis Deo!
Gloria, Gloria, alleluia, alleluia!*

Invitation to Prayer

Song of Response

Til the Storm Passes By

In the dark of the midnight, I have oft hid my face, while the storms howl above me, and there's no hiding place; 'Mid the crash of the thunder, precious One, hear my cry, keep me safe 'til the storm passes by.

*Many times someone told me, there is no need to try, for there's no end of sorrow, there's no hope by and by.
But I know God is with me, and tomorrow I'll rise where the storms never darken the skies.*

*'Til the storm passes over, 'til the thunder sounds no more,
'til the clouds roll forever from the sky,
Hold me fast, let me stand in the hollow of your hand;
keep me safe 'til the storm passes by.*

Affirmation of Faith

Rev Ren Bell

Our hearts are set on God's loving presence. Let us affirm our trust in God.

*I believe in God, the Good,
and in the message and mission of God's anointed prophet,
Jesus the Wayshower
who was born of Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was executed for empowering the powerless and restoring the dignity of the marginalized,
and yet he lives in our hearts and ministry.
I believe in the omnipresent power of divine Love, in the Blessed Community,
in the sacred value of all people, and in life without end.
Amen.*

Song of Response

In the Life of Omnipresence

*In the life of Omnipresence do I dwell, 'tis above, around, within me, all is well; Life divine forever guiding all my ways,
Life divine forever filling all my days.*

Intercessions

Deacon Michael Karben

In faith we now pray:
For the Sunshine Cathedral's local congregation and global fellowship,
For those who have been entrusted to the care of our prayers,
For spiritual seekers,
For all who are distressed in mind, body, or estate,
For medical practitioners,
For first responders,
For leaders of nations,
For justice workers and peace makers,
For those who teach and those who learn.

May they be filled with loving kindness.

May they be well.

May they be peaceful and at ease.

May they be happy.

And with people all over the world we pray,
May peace prevail on earth.

These prayers we offer in the name of all helpers of humanity, and in the words of Jesus, we continue to pray,

Model Prayer

*Creator which art in heaven, hallowed be thy names.
Thy kin-dom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And leave us not in temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.*

Please be seated.

The Lord's Supper

Sursum Corda

Rev Kevin Tisdol

God is with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to God.

Let us give thanks to God.

It is joyful to live in gratitude.

It is right, good, and a joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Omnipresent, everlasting, all-loving God. Therefore, with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we give you praise and glory:

Song

Holy God, We Praise Your Name

Hark, the glad celestial hymn angel choirs around are raising; cherubim and seraphim, in unceasing chorus praising, fill the heavens with joys aflame: holy, holy is your name.

Words of Remembrance

Rev Marian Cavagnaro

Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took a piece of bread, gave thanks to God, broke it, and said, "This is my body...
When you share this bread, (+) remember me."

In the same way, after the supper he took the cup and said,
"This cup is God's new covenant, set in motion in my life.
Drink, and (+) remember me."

Song

Eat This Bread

Eat this bread, drink this cup, come to me and never be hungry. Eat this bread, drink this cup, trust in me and you will not thirst.

Invitation to Communion

Rev Kevin Tisdol

These are the gifts of God for all the people of God.
Thanks be to God.

Communion is Shared

Communion Song

Bless Us All

*Bless us all who gather here
The loving family I hold dear
No place on Earth compares with home
And every path will bring me back from where I roam*

*Bless us all, that as we live
We always comfort and forgive
We have so much that we can share
With those in need we see around us everywhere*

*Let us always love each other
Lead us to the light
Let us hear the voice of reason
Singing in the night
Let us run from anger
And catch us when we fall
Teach us in our dreams
And please, yes please bless us one and all
Bless us all with playful years
With noisy games and joyful tears
We reach for you and we stand tall
And in our prayers and dreams we ask you
Bless us all
We reach for you and we stand tall
And in our prayers and dreams we ask you
Bless us all.*

SAINTS OF THE WEEK

August 30: Louise Hay (1926 – 2017) – Louise had a difficult start to life. She was abused as a child, dropped out of high school, became a model and married a successful business man, but 14 years later he left her for another woman. It wasn't until she was in her 40s that she discovered the Science of Mind philosophy and studied to become first a Religious Science Practitioner and then a minister. She survived cancer and became a writer, painter, motivational speaker, and publisher. Love, forgiveness, and affirmations were her trademark tools for healing and transformation. Her career as a spiritual leader lasted almost 50 years wherein she gave people hope and courage to face the difficulties in life. At the outbreak of the AIDS crisis, she started "The Hayride", a popular support group for people diagnosed with a disease that at that time had no treatment. After a long and fascinating life, Louise made her transition about two months before her 91st birthday.

August 31: Aidan of Lindisfarne (590-651) - Irish monk credited with restoring Christianity to Northumbria. He founded a cathedral on the island of Lindisfarne and served as its first bishop. He is known as the Apostle of Northumbria.

September 1: Socrates (469 – 399 BCE) - believed in the mind/body connection. He said, “One ought not to attempt to cure the body without the soul.” He also believed in the continuity of life beyond the death of the body. Rather than focusing on the Greek gods of his time, Socrates believed in tending to an “Inner Voice.” He was executed (by poison), but said, “You can kill my body, but you cannot kill me.” The story of a noble teacher who is executed but who cannot stay dead is also found, of course, in the Christian gospels! Plato (427 – 347 BCE ) - taught that there was a definite energy that emerged out of the cosmic nothingness of “mind.” He suggested that this energy was the product of thought and it resulted in ideas which precede manifest form. In fact, Plato believed ideas were the source of life, purpose, and meaning. He believed souls (self-aware consciousness) pre-existed before their human incarnation and that they came to this life with prior knowledge. He believed that everything existed in relation to its resemblance to a Universal Form.

Aristotle (384 – 322 BCE) - believed the universe is governed by [spiritual] law. He defined God as “the first cause and the final cause of all being.” Believing in the perfection of God, Aristotle also believed that everything in the world aspires to share in that divine perfection.

Philo (circa 20 BCE – 50 CE) taught that it is our duty to offer love and kindness towards others. He seemed to be able to harmonize Plato’s philosophy with teachings of the Hebrew scriptures. He often read the scriptures allegorically rather than literally. He believed that God directs all activity through the Logos (the power of Ideas, Reason, Wisdom).

September 2: Emma Curtis Hopkins (1849 – 1925) - a student of Mary Baker Eddy’s and for a time an editor for the Christian Science Journal, Emma and Mrs. Eddy eventually had a parting of the ways. Emma started her own seminary in Chicago and taught students who would become the greats of New Thought, including: Helen Wilmans, Myrtle and Charles Fillmore, a Mrs. Bingham (who introduced metaphysical healing to the Brooks sisters), Annie Rix Militiz, and briefly late in her life, Ernest Holmes. Because of her influence over the founders of so many New Thought groups, ECH is often called, “the Teacher of Teachers.”

September 3: Samuel Checote (d. 1884)—Creek Chief and preacher. Checote was born in present-day Alabama and attended mission schools as a child. After the Creek nation was forced to move west of the Mississippi tensions led to the banning of Christian preaching. Checote refused to abandon his faith and interceded with the chief to lift the ban. A Creek Methodist district was established. Checote became a lay preacher, and worked to have the bible and many hymns translated into Creek. He was elected chief three times, and worked tirelessly to overcome racial and cultural differences.
