The Wisdom of the Psalter (30.5)
Rev Dr Anne Atwell

Misfortune lasts for only a moment, while divine goodwill endures for a lifetime.

Weeping may last throughout the night, but at daybreak
there is rejoicing.

In these human words, God's voice is heard.
Thanks be to God.

A Reading from Luke's Gospel (3.10-16)
Rev Dr Anne Atwell

The crowds asked John the baptizer, "What should we do?"

In reply John said to them, "Whoever has two coats must share with anyone who has none; and whoever has food must do likewise."

Even tax collectors came to be baptized, and they asked him, "Teacher, what should we do?"

He said to them, "Collect no more than the amount prescribed for you."

Soldiers also asked him, "And we, what should we do?" He said to them, "Do not extort money from anyone by threats or false accusation, and be satisfied with your wages."

As the people were filled with expectation, and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Messiah,

John answered all of them by saying, "I baptize you with water; but one who is more powerful than I is coming...He will baptize you with the holy Spirit and fire.

In these human words, God's voice is heard.
Thanks be to God.

Advent Confession

Rev Marian Cavagnaro

One: May we be forgiven for forgetting our divine nature.
All: May we be forgiven for failing to see the sacred value of all people.

One: May we be healed of judging ourselves, and others, too harshly.
All: May we forgive ourselves for not trusting in the absolute goodness and unconditional love of God.

One: May we forgive ourselves and others of all mistakes, real or imagined, since God has always and only seen the truth of our endless goodness.
All: May we now let our light shine and live as the children of God that we are. Amen.

Sung Response

No Day But Today

There's only us, there's only this. Forget regret, or life is yours to miss.

*No other road, no other way, no day but today.
I can't control my destiny. I trust my soul, my only goal is just to be.*

There's only now, there's only here. Give into love, or live in fear.

*No other road, no other way, no day but today.
No day but today.*

Thy kin-dom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And leave us not in temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.*

The Lord's Supper

Words of Remembrance

Rev Marian Cavagnaro

One: On the night of his arrest Jesus shared a meal with his friends and family of choice. After supper, he took a piece of bread, broke it, and offered it to those at table. Sharing together made them one body. Jesus said, "When you do this, remember me."

One: He then took a cup of wine and shared it with the others. Sharing reminded them that they were bound together in a covenant of love. Jesus again said, "When you do this, remember me."

Chorus

*Adeste fideles, laeti triumphantes;
venite, venite in Bethlehem.
Natum videte Regem angelorum.
Venite adoremus, venite adoremus,

SEASON OF ADVENT - Advent is a season of the liturgical year observed in Western Christianity as a time of expectant waiting and preparation for the coming of Christ. This "coming" refers to the Nativity (birth of Jesus) and for some, it also refers to an expected "return" of Christ. At Sunshine Cathedral, a variety of beliefs are held and welcome, but our pastors suggest that the Christ Nature is within us and the Christ Principle is always present. Our senior minister interprets the Pentecost narrative in the Book of Acts as the spirit of Christ enlivening the Church to be the returned body of Christ, and so, we are the return of Christ! Advent calls us to begin again the cycle of worship that focuses on the story of our wayshower, Jesus, and that encourages us to live out his values of compassion and justice-love in the world.

CAPITAL CAMPAIGN - We have launched a three year capital campaign to improve various areas of our physical property. Please consider making a pledge to that campaign. For more information, contact any member of the Sunshine Cathedral Board of Governors or reach out to Rev. Dr. Robert Griffin (robert@sunshinecathedral.org)

OUR SUNDAY BROADCAST is made possible by Happening Out Television Network and donors who support our televised ministry. HOUT TV is housed at Sunshine Cathedral Square.

SAINTS FOR THE WEEK

December 12: Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe—commemoration of St. Mary's visitation to Juan Diego

Sister Alicia Doman (d.1977)—French nun and martyr. During a period of military dictatorship in Argentina thousands of civilians were abducted and never heard from again, including several French nuns who had devoted themselves to working with the poor and oppressed. Sister Alicia became closely involved with the Mothers of the Disappeared, who dressed in black and gathered in silence in the central plaza each day, carrying pictures of their children. Along with several others, Alicia was abducted and, as later reports revealed, tossed out of an airplane over the Atlantic Ocean.

December 13: F. Bernadette Turner (1903 – 1995) – Turner wanted to be an Episcopal priest when she was young, but was not allowed because of her gender. She still wanted to serve and help people, so she earned multiple degrees in Education, Sociology, Social Work, and finally a PhD in Psychology. She discovered Divine Science and trained to become a Divine Science minister. She pastored Divine Science churches in Chicago and Roanoke. In retirement, she continued to minister as a chaplain to the retirement home where she lived. Then, at the age of 86, she was ordained a deacon in the Episcopal Church and the following year (1990) at the age 87, she was ordained an Episcopal priest (her lifelong dream finally fulfilled). She continued serving as chaplain to her community where she encouraged seniors to renew their energy by taking rest, exercise, good nutrition, and meditation.

St. Lucy 283 – 304 - a Christian martyr who died during the Diocletianic Persecution. She is venerated as a saint by the Roman Catholic, Anglican, Lutheran, and Orthodox Churches. She is one of eight women along with St. Mary who are commemorated by name in the Canon of the Mass. Her feast day is celebrated in the West on 13 December. St. Lucia of Syracuse was honored in the Middle Ages and remained a well-known saint in early modern England.

December 14: Fannie Brooks James (1854 – 1914) – Nona Brooks' sister. Author of Truth and Health. A former Presbyterian, she struggled with health and financial issues in her younger years. Her lot improved once she was introduced to New Thought metaphysics. She was an early teacher, writer, and leader in the Divine Science movement. Emphasizing the Divine Science focus on Omnipresence, she wrote, "If God is OMNIPRESENCE, there is nothing anywhere but God."

December 15: Joseph Murphy (1898 – 1981) – an Irish Catholic priest, pharmacist, and psychologist who became a Religious Science minister and then a Divine Science minister. In his life he met Thomas Edison and Albert Einstein. He was a friend of Ernest Holmes and also of Emmet Fox. He loved the teachings of Nona Brooks. He pastored a large New Thought church in Los Angeles and wrote the self-help classic, The Power of Your Subconscious Mind. Murphy taught, "Your subconscious never sleeps. It is always on the job. It controls all your vital functions. Forgive yourself and everyone else before you go to sleep, and healing will take place much more rapidly."

December 16: Joseph Perry Green (1898 – 1981) – founder of the College of Divine Metaphysics (still offering correspondence courses today).

December 17: Feast of St. Lazarus of Bethany – Lazarus was part of Jesus' chosen family. Some Queer scholars think it is possible their relationship was romantic in nature.

Claude M. Bristol (1891 - 1951) - WW1 veteran and journalist who investigated and practiced what he called "mind stuff" (the power of belief, determination, and visualization). Comedienne Phyllis Diller credited his book The Magic of Believing with changing her life and jumpstarting her career. She often gave copies of the book to young performers seeking her advice. Bristol advised, "You have to think big to be big" and "We usually get what we anticipate."

Dom Bede Griffiths (1906-1994)—Monk and Sannyasi. Raised in a middle-class English family and student of C. S. Lewis at Oxford, Griffiths' spiritual journey led him first to the Catholic faith and the life of a Benedictine monk. While sent to establish a monastery in India, he came to believe that the secularized West had much to learn from the East. He helped found a Christian ashram that was faithful to Christian traditions, but adopted the disciplines of the East, including yoga and meditation. He dressed in the saffron robes and lived as a sannyasi, or Hindu holy man. His liturgies combined Christian and Hindu prayers and readings. He believed he could find the truth of Christ present within all the religions of the world.
