DIVINE SCIENCE LEADERS TO CELEBRATE IN DECEMBER

Taken from Sunshine Cathedral calendar of spiritual heroes

F. Bernadette Turner (1903 – 1995) – Turner wanted to be an Episcopal priest when she was young, but was not allowed because of her gender. She still wanted to serve and help people, so she earned multiple degrees in Education, Sociology, Social Work, and finally a PhD in Psychology. She discovered Divine Science and trained to become a Divine Science minister. She pastored Divine Science churches in Chicago and Roanoke. In retirement, she continued to minister as a chaplain to the retirement home where she lived. Then, at the age of 86, she was ordained a deacon in the Episcopal Church and the following year (1990) at the age 87, she was ordained an Episcopal priest (her lifelong dream finally fulfilled). She continued serving as chaplain to her community where she encouraged seniors to renew their energy by taking rest, exercise, good nutrition, and meditation.

Fannie Brooks James (1854 – 1914) – Nona Brooks’ sister. Author of Truth and Health. A former Presbyterian, she struggled with health and financial issues in her younger years. Her lot improved once she was introduced to New Thought metaphysics. She was an early teacher, writer, and leader in the Divine Science movement. Emphasizing the Divine Science focus on Omnipresence, she wrote, “If God is OMNIPRESENCE, there is nothing anywhere but God.”

Joseph Murphy (1898 – 1981) – an Irish Catholic priest, pharmacist, and psychologist who became a Religious Science minister and then a Divine Science minister. In his life he met Thomas Edison and Albert Einstein. He was a friend of Ernest Holmes and also of Emmet Fox. He loved the teachings of Nona Brooks. He pastored a large New Thought church in Los Angeles and wrote the self-help classic, The Power of Your Subconscious Mind. Murphy taught, “Your subconscious never sleeps. It is always on the job. It controls all your vital functions. Forgive yourself and everyone else before you go to sleep, and healing will take place much more rapidly.”

OTHER NEW THOUGHT LEADERS TO CELEBRATE IN DECEMBER

Taken from Sunshine Cathedral calendar of spiritual heroes

Mary Baker Eddy (1821 – 1910) - Author of Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures and Founder of the First Church of Christ, Scientist in Boston. Also the leading figure in the Christian Science movement. Mrs. Eddy said, “To those leaning on the sustaining infinite, today is big with blessings.” Christian Science is a metaphysical tradition but does not claim to be part of the New Thought movement, though some New Thinkers consider Christian Science to be a close “cousin” to New Thought.

Joseph Perry Green (1898 – 1981) – founder of the College of Divine Metaphysics (still offering correspondence courses today).

Claude M. Bristol (1891 - 1951) - WW1 veteran and journalist who investigated and practiced what he called “mind stuff” (the power of belief, determination, and visualization). Comedienne Phyllis Diller credited his book The Magic of Believing with changing her life and jumpstarting her career. She often gave copies of the book to young performers seeking her advice. Bristol advised, “You have to think big to be big” and “We usually get what we anticipate.”

Warren Felt Evans (1817 – 1889) – attended Middlebury and Dartmouth colleges. He became a Methodist minister and then left Methodism to join the Swedenborgian church (Church of the New Jerusalem). After visiting Phineas P. Quimby (the “father” of New Thought) for treatment for an ailment, Evans himself became a “mind cure” practitioner. He was the first to write about the healing methods used and taught by Phineas Quimby. WFE declared, “All outward power that we exercise over the things about us is but a shadow in comparison with the inward power that resides in imagination and will.”

Johnnie Colemon (1920 – 2014) – Johnnie Colemon experienced a dramatic healing when she discovered New Thought, but soon after encountered racism when she began studying for the ministry. Nevertheless, she completed her ministerial studies and was ordained. Later, she founded her own church (Christ Universal Temple), an association of churches and ministries (Universal Foundation for Better Living), and a ministry school. The theology of CUT & UFBL is “Fillmorean” (the philosophy of Charles and Myrtle Fillmore). Colemon taught the affirmation, “I am the thinker that thinks the thought that makes the thing.”

Norman Vincent Peale (1898-1993) – Champion of positive thinking and author of The Power of Positive Thinking and founder of Guideposts Magazine. Peale was a Methodist minister who became Dutch Reformed so that he could pastor New York’s prestigious Marble Collegiate Church. Peale famously taught, “Change your thoughts and you change your world.” He also said, “If you paint in your mind a picture of bright and happy expectations, you put yourself into a condition conducive to your goal.” He praised enthusiasm: “There is real magic in enthusiasm. It spells the difference between mediocrity and accomplishment.” And he encouraged optimism: “Stand up to your obstacles and do something about them. You will find they haven’t half the strength you think they have.”

OTHER PEOPLE & EVENTS TO CELEBRATE IN DECEMBER

Taken from Sunshine Cathedral calendar of spiritual heroes

St. Nicholas (270-343) – known for compassion, courage, and generosity. He is the patron of sailors, pawnbrokers, and children. When his parents died, he gave most of his inheritance to the poor. Because of various miracles attributed to his intercession, he is sometimes called Nicholas the Wonderworker. He was a bishop in Asia Minor during the time of the Roman Empire. His great deeds as told in legend include resurrecting three children who had been killed by a nefarious butcher who killed them and intended to cure them as ham, offering himself in exchange for the release of captives, and attending the first Council of Nicea (his name is included in some records but not in others).

Bodhi Day - commemorates the day that the historical Buddha, Siddhartha Gautama (Shakyamuni), achieved awakening or enlightenment (bodhi in Sanskrit). Siddhartha had recently forsaken extreme ascetic practices and decided to sit under a tree and meditate until he found the root of suffering, and how to liberate oneself from it.

The Nativity of Jesus (c. 4 BCE)—The celebration of Christmas at the darkest days of Winter marks the birth of light and hope for the world. The traditional date of Jesus’ birth was determined in Rome in 336, taking the place of an existing Roman holiday, the birth of the Unconquerable Sun. The actual date Jesus was born was more likely in the Spring. The word “Christmas” goes back to the 12th century and is a contraction of “Christ’s Mass.”

“BE SINCERE IN ALL EFFORTS” (excerpt)
from Basic Statements & Health Treatment of Truth
by Malinda Cramer

Age is not an obstacle in the way of either knowing or demonstrating the freedom of Truth. The notion that mental faculties must fail with increasing years is a false notion, and is at one with the belief that mental faculties are born of the brain, and that mind is evolved from the body.

The truth is that the mental faculties, brain, and entire body are born of mind, and mind never fails. Hence, you are always just old enough to be well, and to think right, and to know and remember all there is in truth. Now is just the right time to prove that you have health, and are happy and satisfied. Now is the time to bring eternal Life and immortality to light, and bear witness of the truth of what you are. Because you have spent large sums of money trying to get well, do not hold that as an objection against trying this method. When it is once settled in your thought that you want to, and can, realize freedom and wholeness, the only question that should arise is: ‘Do I want to realize it more than anything else?’

Be not divided in your thought between money and what may be accomplished. Let not money, time, or anything be as an obstacle in your way. Your determination will not falter, if your purpose is one, and not divided. Say: ‘My birthright is health, wholeness, and satisfaction’; do not barter it for any number of excuses. If necessary, give up every habit, every former way of thinking, talking, and acting, and conform all to Principle.

Jesus never denies the Christ within him, but says, in the hour of seeming need: ‘To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth.’ Say: ‘I am here to bear witness of the truth, as much in the hour of seeming need as at any other time, and this is my time. To this end was I born. My existence bears witness of truth and life... I therefore declare I am the Truth and Life, and am health. I and my Father are one, and not two; hence, I am complete in [God], and find nothing to remedy in my existence. The I Am is sufficient unto all things needful.’

As you have proven that all external things are powerless to give the unwavering health and satisfaction for which you are seeking, begin your work from the plane of Being, and being in God, and you will find.

“Make channels for the streams of Love, where they may broadly run;
And Love has overflowing streams, to fill them every one.
For we must share, if we would keep that blessing from above.
Ceasing to give, we cease to have, such is the law of Love.” Annie Rix Militz (Home of Truth)

Love gives, Love shares. Love is generous and kind. I share kindness, goodwill, encouragement, hope, joy, and prosperity, and as I give, I receive; and as I receive, I give. The flow of love is powerful in my life. Amen.

Dec 4, 2021

“You are not happy because you are well. You are well because you are happy.” Emmet Fox (Divine Science)

*When I am truly happy, all is well in my life. Happiness overcomes sorrow, heals regret, refuses self-doubt any point of entry, and radiates outward as satisfaction, achievement, and harmony.
I choose to be happy today. I am happy and well. Amen.*

SIA Daily Treatment by Rev. Dr. Durrell Watkins
Dec 5, 2021

“When things are going wrong declare constantly that you are not going to be afraid or intimidated by any outer condition.” Emmet Fox (Divine Science)

I am not distracted nor am I intimidated by circumstance or condition. There is wisdom available to me that can solve any problem. There is hope within me that is stronger than any tumultuous situation. I have faith that there is a power that is ever-present and All Good, and to this Power I entrust my every care. Difficulties are but experiences that must pass, and I look past them to the Truth of the All Good in which I live and move and have my being. And so it is.

“The Law may be defined as Mind in Action, producing the many out of the one, by the power of thought.” Fenwicke Holmes (Divine Science)

There is one power, one presence, one law, one principle, one substance: the many are manifestations of the one. This is the law. This is the truth. I am one with God. Amen.

SIA Daily Treatment by Rev. Dr. Durrell Watkins
Dec 10, 2021

“The way to overcome the negative thought is to substitute the good thought. Affirm the good, and the bad will vanish.” Joseph Murphy (Religions Science/Divine Science)

Two things can't occupy the same space at once. Fear and hope can't occupy the same moment. Love and hatred can't coexist. Regret and joy are not able to be fully present in the same moment. When we choose a positive thought and a good feeling, that must push out whatever is different from it. When I affirm the good, I am choosing the good, and only the good will remain. Today, I choose what is good. Amen.

Dec 17, 2021

“The first requirement in the Christ method of healing is that of giving up the false supposition and selfish belief of a separate self-hood from God.” Malinda Cramer (Divine Science)

The ego that believes itself to be small and separate from the universe, that feels disconnected from the Whole of existence, that worries and frets and trembles in senseless fear is not my truth. The constructed and illusory self is not the True Self which is divine, perfect, and eternal. When I know that what God is, I am and where I am, God is, then peace is mine and all is well.

Tradition said that Jesus shouldn't care about Canaanites, but the Canaanite woman whose daughter needed healing would not be limited by tradition. She insisted that healing was possible and that it in no way should be denied her daughter. Jesus agreed and her daughter was healed. Fierce determination yields results. I am determined to be blessed. Amen.

Since God is All and All Good, I am innately good. I am not sinful. I may have made mistakes, but I am not the mistakes of the past. What I am is Good. I Am the Good, the infinite and ultimate Good, made manifest. I am one of the ways God knows Itself. I am an expression, an experience, an incarnation of the All Good. I end this year knowing that I am a blessed and beloved child of God, forever part of God. And I enter the new year expecting joy, success, and vitality. Blessings come to me every day of the year. Divine Light shines upon me and through me. My life is Divine Life expressing and is, therefore, perfect. Nothing hinders my expression of goodness. All is well. 2022 will be a marvelous year.
