Rev Dr Robert Griffin, Executive Minister

Announcements

Rev Dr Anne Atwell, Minister of Connections

Please rise as you are able.

Introit

*In the light of Omnipresence do I dwell, 'tis above, around, within me, all is well;
Life divine forever guiding all my ways, Life divine forever filling all my days.*

*In the love of Omnipresence do I rest, feel it filling, thrilling through me, blessed Guest!
Love divine all discord soothing into peace, Love divine in whose sweet presence pain doth cease.*

Sunshine Cathedral Affirmation

Sunshine Cathedral is a different kind of church where the past is past and the future has infinite possibilities.

The Call to Worship

This is the day our God has made.
Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Service of Praise

Processional Hymn Fill My Cup, Lord
*Like the woman at the well I was seeking for things that could not satisfy;
And then I heard my savior speaking: 'draw from my well that never shall run dry.'*

*Fill my cup, Lord, I lift it up, Lord! Come and quench this thirsting of my soul;
Bread of heaven, feed me till I want no more – fill my cup,
fill it up and make me whole!*

*There are millions in this world who are craving the pleasure earthly things afford;
But none can match the wondrous treasure that I find in Christ the living Word.*

*Fill my cup, Lord, I lift it up, Lord! Come and quench this
thirsting of my soul;
Bread of heaven, feed me till I want no more – fill my cup,
fill it up and make me whole!*

*So, my friend now, if the things this world gave you leave hungers that won't pass away,
The loving Christ is deep within you, and can com-fort you now as you pray:*

*Fill my cup, Lord, I lift it up, Lord! Come and quench this
thirsting of my soul;
Bread of heaven, feed me till I want no more – fill my cup,
fill it up and make me whole!*

Opening Litany

Rev Marian Cavagnaro

One: This is God's house. May we who come here not only find out about God, but find God.

All: May there be beauty in this place, but especially may it be a place where we become aware of the beauty in ourselves.

One: May this be a place of worship, of instruction, of singing, of prayer.

All: And for us who worship and take instruction and sing and pray, may this also be a place of inner stillness, where we may listen and hear when God speaks.

One: May this be such a house that Jesus Christ, or any stranger, would feel in it that they were with friends.

All: May everyone come into this house in expectation and go with thanksgiving. May each person receive the blessing they need most.

Sung Response

Amen. Amen. Amen.

Please be seated.

Service of Proclamation

Wisdom of A Course in Miracles

Rev Marian Cavagnaro

"All your past except its beauty is gone...You have so little faith in yourself because you are unwilling to accept the fact that perfect love is in you, and so you seek without for what you cannot find within."

In these human words, God's voice is heard.
Thanks be to God.

Please rise as you are able.

A Reading from the Fourth Gospel (4.4 - 30)

Rev Dr Anne Atwell

Jesus had to pass through Samaria. So he came to a Samaritan town called Sychar, near the plot of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired from his journey, sat down at the well. It was about noon.

When a Samaritan woman came to draw water, Jesus said to her, "Give me some water to drink." His disciples had gone into the town to purchase food. The Samaritan woman said to him, "You are a Jew. How can you ask me, a Samaritan woman, for some water to drink?" (Jewish customs do not allow sharing with Samaritans.)

Jesus replied, "If you recognized the gift of God and who it is that is asking you for something to drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water."

"Sir," the woman said, "you do not have a bucket, and the well is deep. Where can you get this living water? Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob who gave us this well and drank from it himself along with his sons and his cattle?"

Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again. But whoever drinks the water that I will give will never be thirsty."

The water that I will give will become a spring of water within you welling up to eternal life.”

The woman said to him, “Sir, give me this water so that I may not be thirsty and have to come here to draw water.”

Jesus told her, “Go, call your husband and come back here.” The woman answered him, “I have no husband.” Jesus said to her, “You are right in saying, ‘I have no husband’; for you have had five husbands, and the man you have now is not your husband.”

The woman said to him, “Sir, I can see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem.”

Jesus told her, “Believe me, woman, the hour is coming when you will worship neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.

...The hour is coming, indeed it is already here, when the true worshipers will worship in Spirit and truth...

God is Spirit, and those who worship properly must worship in Spirit and truth.”

The woman said to him, “I know that the Messiah is coming. When that happens, will the messiah reveal everything to us.”

Jesus said to her, “I am he...”

At this point, his disciples returned, and they were astonished to find him speaking with a woman, but no one asked, “What do you want from her?” or “Why are you conversing with her?” The woman left behind her water jar and went off to the town, where she said to the people, “Come and see a man who told me everything I have ever done. Could this be the Messiah?” And so they departed from the town and made their way to see him.

In these human words, God’s voice is heard.
Thanks be to God.

Song of Response People Need the Lord

People need the Lord, people need the Lord; at the end of broken dreams, there’s an open door.

People need the Lord, people need the Lord; when will we realize that people need the Lord?

Please be seated.

 Thy kin-dom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in our debts as we forgive our debtors. And leave us not in temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.*

The Lord's Supper

Words of Remembrance

Rev Marian Cavagnaro

One: On the night of his arrest Jesus shared a meal with his friends and family of choice. After supper, he took a piece of bread, broke it, and offered it to those at table. Sharing together made them one body. Jesus said, "When you do this, (+) remember me."

One: He then took a cup of wine and shared it with the others. Sharing reminded them that they were bound together in a covenant of love. Jesus again said, "When you do this, (+) remember me."

Chorus

*Gloria, gloria, in excelsis Deo!
 Gloria, gloria, alleluia, alleluia!*

Invitation to Communion

Rev Kevin Tisdol

These are the gifts of God for all the people of God.
Thanks be to God.

Communion is Shared

Communion Song

I Love Myself the Way I Am

*I love myself the way I am, there's nothing I need to change.
 I'll always be the perfect me, there's nothing to rearrange.
 I'm beautiful and capable of being the best me I can; and I love myself just the way I am.*

*I love you, the way you are, there's nothing you need to do.
 When I feel the love inside, it's easy to love you.
 Behind your fears, your rage and tears, I see your shining star, and I love you just the way you are.*

*I love the world the way it is, 'cause I can clearly see that all the things I judge are done by people just like me.
 So 'til the birth of peace on earth that only love can bring,
 I'll help it grow by loving everything.*

*I love myself the way I am, and still I want to grow, but change outside can only come when deep inside I know:
 I'm beautiful and capable of being the best me I can; and I love myself just the way I am.*

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Rev Dr Robert Griffin

Please rise as you are able.

The Prayer of Protection

*The light of God surrounds us; the love of God enfolds us.
The power of God protects us; the presence of God watches over us. Wherever we are, God is.*

Benediction

BLACK HISTORY MONTH: Gladys Bentley (1907-1960). Bentley was a gender-bending performer during the Harlem Renaissance. Donning a top hat and tuxedo, Bentley would sing the blues in Harlem establishments like the Clam House and the Ubangi Club. According to a belated obituary published in 2019, The New York Times said Bentley, who died in 1960 at the age of 52, was "Harlem's most famous lesbian" in the 1930s and "among the best-known Black entertainers in the United States."

OUR SUNDAY BROADCAST is made possible by Happening Out Television Network and donors who support our televised ministry. Happening Out is housed at Sunshine Cathedral Square. Happening Out programming can be viewed on YouTube, Facebook, Amazon Fire, Apple TV, Google TV, and Roku.

TODAY'S CONTEMPORARY READING – comes from A Course in Miracles. The Course was scribed by Helen Schucman, a psychology professor at Columbia University who discovered that love and forgiveness lead to peace and that choosing love over fear is itself a life changing miracle.

SAINTS OF THE WEEK

February 8: Martin Buber (1878-1965)— Jewish philosopher and theologian. Buber had a strong impact in reminding Christianity of its Jewish origins. He wrote that Jesus exemplified the highest ethical and spiritual ideals of Judaism. He was a champion of interfaith dialogue. He was influenced by the Hasidic movement in Eastern Europe and he believed that Jews and Arabs could find a just way to live together.

February 9: Helen Schucman (1909 – 1981) – a professor of clinical psychology at Columbia University in NYC for 18 years (retiring in 1976). Faculty meetings were increasingly acrimonious and Helen and her friend and colleague, Bill Thetford were beginning to dread them. Bill said to Helen, "There must be another way." Soon after, Helen started receiving "inner dictation" (which she believed was coming from Jesus himself) and she started writing it down. The result is A Course in Miracles. The Course encourages people to love, forgive, believe in the absolute goodness and lovingness of God, and to release fear. By following the Course's guidelines, students of the Course believe that inner peace and lasting joy are possible. The Course seems to blend therapeutic principles, Christian verbiage, and Eastern philosophy. It can be (and is) practiced by people of various faith traditions (and none). One of ACIM's most famous quotes is: "Nothing real can be threatened. Nothing unreal exists. Herein lies the peace of God."

February 11: Fanny Jane Crosby (1820-1915)—Hymn writer and musician. Though she went blind at six weeks of age, Fanny Crosby became one of the most prolific hymn writers in America. She eventually wrote more than 8,000 hymns. Among those that have been deeply loved (especially in Evangelical churches) include: "Blessed Assurance," "Pass Me Not, O Gentle Savior," and "To God be the Glory."

February 12: Brother Lawrence (1614 – 1691) – at about the age of 40, former soldier turned valet "Nicholas Herman" joined the Carmelite order in France and would then be known as "Lawrence of the Resurrection" or "Brother Lawrence." He was a simple, barefoot monk. He spent most of his monastic career working in the monastery kitchen, and in his final years repaired sandals (a barefoot monk repairing sandals so others could walk in comfort was apparently very in character for Brother Lawrence). He was known for his peaceful demeanor and happy nature. He developed a form of praying from the heart, of being in constant communion with the divine, that he called "practicing the presence of God." People would write to him or visit him for spiritual guidance. After Lawrence died, Father Joseph de Beaufort gathered many of Lawrence's letters and published them as The Practice of the Presence of God, which is a text still appreciated by Protestants and Catholics alike.

Immanuel Kant (1724 – 1804) - born in Prussia and became a professor of logic and metaphysics. He separated the historical Jesus and the mystical Christ.
