*We shall overcome, we shall overcome,
we shall overcome some day!
O, deep in my heart I do believe
we shall overcome some day!*

*We'll walk hand in hand, we'll walk hand in hand,
we'll walk hand in hand some day!
O, deep in my heart I do believe
we'll walk hand in hand some day!*

*We shall all be free, we shall all be free,
we shall all be free some day!
O, deep in my heart I do believe
we shall all be free some day!*

*We shall live in peace, we shall live in peace,
we shall live in peace some day!
O, deep in my heart I do believe
we shall live in peace some day!*

Opening Litany

Rev Dr Anne Atwell

One: In a world with so much hatred and violence,
Many: We need spirituality that proclaims the sacred value of all people.

One: In a world with so much brutality and fear,
Many: We need spirituality that seeks justice, equity, and compassion in human relations.

One: In a world with so many persons abused and neglected,
Many: We need spirituality that calls us to accept one another and encourage one another to grow.

One: In a world with so much dogmatism and falsehood,
Many: We need spirituality that challenges us to a free and responsible search for truth and meaning.

One: In a world with so much tyranny and oppression,
Many: We need spirituality that affirms the right of conscience and the pursuit of restorative justice.

One: In a world with so much inequality and strife,
Many: We need spirituality that strives toward the goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all.

One: In a world with so much environmental degradation,
Many: We need spirituality that advocates respect for the interdependent web of all existence - of which we are a part.

One: In a world with so much uncertainty and despair,
Many: We need spirituality that teaches our hearts to hope, and our hands to serve.

One: In this sanctified place and in this blessed community, may we embrace, develop, and share this healing spirituality.

Response Threefold Amen
Amen. Amen. Amen.

Please be seated.

Service of Proclamation

The wisdom of Dorothy Day

Rev Dr Durrell Watkins

“People say, ‘what is the sense of our small effort?’
They cannot see that we must lay one brick at a time, take one step at a time.

A pebble cast into a pond causes ripples that spread in all directions. Each one of our thoughts, words and deeds is like that.

No one has a right to sit down and feel hopeless.
There’s too much work to do.

In these human words, God’s voice is heard.

Thanks be to God.

Please rise as you are able.

A reading from the prophet Micah (6.6-8)

Rev Kevin Tisdol

With what will I come before the Lord when I bow down before God on high?

Will I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old?

Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousand rivers of oil?

Should I offer my firstborn child...?

The Lord has told you, O mortal, what is good. And what does the Lord require of you?

Only this: to do what is just, to show mercy, and to walk humbly with your God.

In these human words, God's voice is heard.

Thanks be to God.

Song of Response Change My Heart, O God

Change my heart, O God, make it ever true; change my heart, O God, may I be like you.

You are the Potter, I am the clay; mold me and make me, this is what I pray.

Change my heart, O God, make it ever true; change my heart, O God, may I be like you.

Please be seated.

Light of God in Me

(Tune: Woodworth ["Just As I Am"]

*Just as I am, I'm meant to be God is my life eternally
And Love divine embraces me O Light of God in me... in me.*

*Just as I am I'm whole and free Love, hope and joy are all for me And Truth affirms my dignity
O Light of God in me...in me.*

*Just as I am healed, prospered and blessed Grace frees me now from strife and stress and I receive Life's very best
O Light of God in me...in me.*

Pastoral Prayer and Affirmations

Sign of Peace

Faith of the Heart

It's been a long road, getting from there to here.

It's been a long time, but my time is finally here.

And I will see my dream come alive at last.

I will touch the sky. And they're not gonna hold me down no more, no they're not gonna hold me down.

'coz I've got faith of the heart.

I'm going where my heart will take me.

I've got faith to believe I can do anything.

I've got strength of the soul, and no one's gonna bend or break me.

I can reach any star.

I've got faith.

I've got faith, faith of the heart.

We celebrate this Eucharist to the glory of God and with special intentions for the Sunshine Cathedral Global Fellowship and local congregation, and with people all over the world we pray,

May peace prevail on earth!

In praise of the Source of life, in hope for a world that is fair and abundant for everyone, trusting grace equal to every need, acknowledging that we all make mistakes and at times need new chances, and seeking harmony and joy in our lives, we continue our prayers using the words of Jesus:

Model Prayer

Creator which art in heaven, hallowed be thy names. Thy kin-dom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And leave us not in temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Please be seated.

The Lord's Supper

Rev Renwick Bell and Rev Dr Anne Atwell

Many: Jesus took the bread, daily gift of God, formed of wheat and sweat and toil, sun, rain, and sod. In our hands we take gifts of bread and wine, gathered from the fields of earth, signs of love divine.

One: Is not the cup of blessing for which we give thanks a participation in the essence of Christ? And is not the bread that we break a participation in the life of Christ? Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body, for we all share the one loaf.

One: The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed and arrested, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body, which is for you; do this and (+) remember me."

In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant of love...whenever you drink it, (+) remember me."

Many: Jesus gives the bread at our table still, gives the cup to those who seek God's loving will. Let us go in peace; let us freely give, sharing love with all the world daily as we live.

Invitation to Communion

Rev Kevin Tisdol

These are the gifts of God for all the people of God.
Thanks be to God.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Rev Dr Robert Griffin

The Prayer of Protection

The light of God surrounds us; the love of God enfolds us. The power of God protects us; the presence of God watches over us. Wherever we are, God is.

Benediction

Rev Dr Durrell Watkins

Final Song

When the Saints Go Marching In
When the Saints Go Marching In (Traditional)
Verses 2,3 & 4 written by Durrell Watkins

*O when the saints, go marching in,
O when the saints go marching in,
O Lord I want to be in that number
when the saints go marching in.*

*And when unjust-ice is no more,
O when injustice is no more,
O Lord I want to be in that number when injustice is no more.*

*And when we all, are free to love,
O when we all are free to love,
O Lord I want to be in that number when we all are free to love.*

And when we know, God loves us all

O when we know God loves us all,
 O Lord I want to be in that number when we know God loves us all.

And on that hal-elujah day,
 O on that hal-elujah day,
 O Lord I want to be in that number
 on that hal-elujah day.

O when the saints (O when the saints), go marching in (go marching in),
 O when the saints go marching in,
 O Lord I want to be in that number
 when the saints go marching in.

Commissioning

One: Our worship has ended. Let our service begin!
 All: Thanks be to God!

SOCIAL HALL HOSPITALITY – Coffee and treats are available between 10 am and 10:30 am in the Social Hall.

ANNUAL FALL HARVEST CAMPAIGN – Every year we ask people to put aside one dollar a day for 99 days so that we can each give $99 above and beyond our usual giving the Sunday before Thanksgiving. This always helps us recover from slow summers and, along with the winter holiday extravaganzas, helps us end the year in the Black.

DRAG BIBLE STORY HOUR! SPECIAL ADVENT SERIES – Save the dates: Nov 30, Dec 7, Dec 14, and Dec 21 at 6 pm, Why are we doing this? Primarily, to have a fun experience of doing an Advent deep dive into scripture; but also, to make a statement in support of the Art of Drag, the Drag community, and the wholesomeness of Drag Story Hour. This is an act of holy defiance for the sake of justice, an homage to the righteous warriors of the Queer liberation movement, and a legitimate study of our sacred texts. Wednesdays in Advent in the Worship Center.

SAINTS OF THE WEEK

November 13: St. Frances Xavier Cabrini (1850 – 1917) – “Mother Cabrini” (originally from Italy) founded the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. She was beatified on this day in 1938. In 1946 she was canonized, the first naturalized American citizen to be recognized as a saint. She is the patron saint of immigrants.

November 14: James Freeman (1759 - 1835), Minister of King’s Chapel in Boston for 43 years, was the first “avowed Unitarian preacher” in America.

Freeman was called to be the Lay Reader of King’s Chapel 96 years after its founding. He was meant to serve 6 months but the congregation liked him and asked him to stay on. Because of his Unitarian theology, Episcopal Church Bishop Samuel Seabury wouldn’t ordain him, so, after being the Reader (the person who “reads” the Morning Prayer service) for 4 years, the congregation ordained him and he served as their settled minister for another 39 years.

In 1785 Freeman revised KC’s Prayer Book to be compatible with Unitarian theology. King’s Chapel was also the first church in New England to have an organ. In 1814 the Chapel’s bell cracked and it was recast by Paul Revere.

King’s Chapel was the first Anglican church in colonial New England and the first Unitarian church in America. To this day, King’s Chapel uses 18th century Morning Prayer liturgy without Trinitarian language.

Samuel Seabury (1729 – 1796) - was the first American Episcopal bishop, the second Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and the first Bishop of Connecticut. He was a known rival of Alexander Hamilton. In the Spring of 1783, a meeting of ten Episcopal clergy in Woodbury, Connecticut elected Seabury bishop. There were no Anglican bishops in America to consecrate him and so he sailed to London.

In England, however, his consecration wasn’t possible because, as an American, he could not take the oath of loyalty to the British monarch. So he approached the the Scottish Episcopal Church. Seabury was consecrated in Aberdeen on November 14, 1784.

To the present day, the American liturgy adheres to the main features of the Scottish of Holy Communion rite in one of its Liturgies. The anniversary of his consecration is now a lesser feast day on the calendars of the Episcopal Church (United States) and the Anglican Church of Canada.

George Hegel (1770 – 1831) - a German philosopher and believer in Oneness who developed the dialectic process of thought: Thesis, Antithesis, and Synthesis. He believed that in thinking we develop a thesis, then question it and develop its opposite, and finally put the two together to form a unity.

The whole concept is of course greater than any of its individual parts. Synthesis always transcends dichotomy. It is the idea that is absolute, or real...only the idea is really real.

He also believed in the unity of spirit and matter, of the divine and human. He wrote, "God is the system of relationships in which all things move and have their being and their significance.

In [humans], thought, realizing itself as part of the absolute, transcends individual limitations and purposes and catches underneath universal strife the hidden harmony of all things."

NEXT OPEN AIR MARKET - Pre-paid reservations required to sell. 10 December - Time: 8:00AM - Noon SunshineCathedral.org/give

A SORDID ADVENT - Join us on November 27 at 7 pm for a FREE showing of Sordid Lives.

In just the last couple of months the world has lost both Olivia Newton-John and Leslie Jordan, both of whom were in the cast of the film Sordid Lives.

To show this film at the beginning of Advent is meaningful because the first Sunday in Advent is dedicated to Hope and both Newton-John and Jordan offered hope throughout their careers. Dame Olivia Newton-John lived with cancer on and off for decades and survived two bouts of cancer before the third bout ended her life at 73.

In addition to being a living model of facing difficulties with hope and courage, she also worked to bring hope to Queer people as she was one of the first celebrities to advocate for marriage equality in Australia.

Leslie Jordan, who died at age 67, was a very "out" gay man who brought joy through comedy to people all over the world. He also brought comic relief to us in pandemic by taking to social media just to give us a few chuckles in lockdown.

Jordan frequently spoke about living in recovery. He would speak at Alcoholic Anonymous events to encourage large numbers of people seeking to remain in sobriety. Both Jordan and Newton-John played Queer characters in the film, Sordid Lives.

A gay man and a fierce straight ally, both of whom lived out loud to give people facing discrimination, illness, and addiction hope, were lost to us in 2022, but their work and their generosity live on. We happily begin our Season of Advent, on Hope Sunday, with a showing of Sordid Lives.
