Opening Litany

Rev Dr Anne Atwell

One: In a world with so much hatred and violence,
Many: We need spirituality that proclaims the sacred value of all people.

One: In a world with so much brutality and fear,
Many: We need spirituality that seeks justice, equity, and compassion in human relations.

One: In a world with so many persons abused and neglected,
Many: We need spirituality that calls us to accept one another and encourage one another to grow.

One: In a world with so much dogmatism and falsehood,
Many: We need spirituality that challenges us to a free and responsible search for truth and meaning.

One: In a world with so much tyranny and oppression,
Many: We need spirituality that affirms the right of conscience and the pursuit of restorative justice.

One: In a world with so much inequality and strife,
Many: We need spirituality that strives toward the goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all.

One: In a world with so much environmental degradation,
Many: We need spirituality that advocates respect for the interdependent web of all existence - of which we are a part.

One: In a world with so much uncertainty and despair,
Many: We need spirituality that teaches our hearts to hope, and our hands to serve.

One: In this sanctified place and in this blessed community, may we embrace, develop, and share this healing spirituality.

Response

Service of Proclamation

The wisdom of Cushing Smith

Rev Dr Durrell Watkins

"I am God-in-the-act-of-[moving]. I am God-in-the-act-of-speaking. I am God-in-the-act-of-listening. I am God-in-the-act-of-thinking. I am God-in-the-act-of-accomplishing. I am God-in-the-act-of-giving... I am God-in-the-act-of-manifesting..."

My heart overflows with peace, joy, gratitude for being at one with God...

I praise God that I am free, happy, joyous and at peace with everyone in God's universe; and I go forth today to those accomplishments and contacts which reveal divine love and constant guidance and protection.

I am the perfect expression of God's being, and I intend to prove today that 'Now are we the children of God'; 'Now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.'"

In these human words, God's voice is heard.

Thanks be to God.

Please rise as you are able.

A Reading from the Fourth Gospel (1.43-51)

Rev Dr Anne Atwell

Jesus decided to go to Galilee. Encountering Philip, he said to him, "Follow me."

Philip came from the same town, Bethsaida, as Andrew and Peter.

Philip found Nathanael and said to him, "We have found the one about whom Moses in the Law and also the Prophets wrote — Jesus the son of Joseph, from Nazareth."

Nathanael said to him, "Can anything good come from Nazareth?" Philip replied, "Come and see."

When Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him, he said of him, "Behold, a true Israelite, in whom there is no deception."

Nathanael asked him, "How do you know me?" Jesus answered him, "Before Philip summoned you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."

Nathanael said to him, "Teacher, you are the Son of God. You are the King of Israel."

Jesus responded, "Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than that." Then he added, "It's true, it's true what I say to you, you will see the heavens opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the son of humanity."

In these human words, God's voice is heard.

Thanks be to God.

We celebrate this Eucharist to the glory of God and with special intentions for the Sunshine Cathedral Global Fellowship and local congregation, and with people all over the world we pray,

May peace prevail on earth!

In praise of the Source of life, in hope for a world that is fair and abundant for everyone, trusting grace equal to every need, acknowledging that we all make mistakes and at times need new chances, and seeking harmony and joy in our lives, we continue our prayers using the words of Jesus:

Model Prayer

Creator which art in heaven, hallowed be thy names. Thy kin-dom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And leave us not in temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Please be seated.

The Lord's Supper

9AM

Rev Marian Cavagnaro & Rev Dr Anne Atwell

10:30AM

Rev Margarita Rodriguez & Rev Marian Cavagnaro

Many: Jesus took the bread, daily gift of God, formed of wheat and sweat and toil, sun, rain, and sod. In our hands we take gifts of bread and wine, gathered from the fields of earth, signs of love divine.

One: Is not the cup of blessing for which we give thanks a participation in the essence of Christ? And is not the bread that we break a participation in the life of Christ? Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body, for we all share the one loaf.

One: The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed and arrested, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body, which is for you; do this and (+) remember me."

In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant of love...whenever you drink it, (+) remember me."

Many: Jesus gives the bread at our table still, gives the cup to those who seek God's loving will. Let us go in peace; let us freely give, sharing love with all the world daily as we live.

Final Song

When the Saints Go Marching In
When the Saints Go Marching In (Traditional)
Verses 2,3 & 4 written by Durrell Watkins

*O when the saints, go marching in,
O when the saints go marching in,
O Lord I want to be in that number
when the saints go marching in.*

*And when unjust-ice is no more,
O when injustice is no more,
O Lord I want to be in that number when injustice is no more.*

*And when we all, are free to love,
O when we all are free to love,
O Lord I want to be in that number when we all are free to love.*

And when we know, God loves us all
 O when we know God loves us all,
 O Lord I want to be in that number
 when we know God loves us all.

And on that hal-elujah day,
 O on that hal-elujah day,
 O Lord I want to be in that number
 on that hal-elujah day.

O when the saints (O when the saints), go marching in (go marching in),
 O when the saints go marching in,
 O Lord I want to be in that number
 when the saints go marching in.

DRAG BIBLE STORY HOUR! SPECIAL ADVENT SERIES – Save the dates: Nov 30, Dec 7, Dec 14, and Dec 21 at 7pm

Why are we doing this? Primarily, to have a fun experience of doing an Advent deep dive into scripture; but also, to make a statement in support of the Art of Drag, the Drag community, and the wholesomeness of Drag Story Hour. This is an act of holy defiance for the sake of justice, an homage to the righteous warriors of the Queer liberation movement, and a legitimate study of our sacred texts. Wednesdays in Advent in the Worship Center.

A GLORIOUS HOLIDAY – Sunshine Cathedral’s annual holiday concert this year is titled “A Glorious Holiday.” It will feature the Sunshine Cathedral Music Ministry, music staff and volunteers, vocals and instruments, choir and solos. December 3 at 7 pm.

PERFORMING ARTS RAFFLE (win seats to 10 shows) - To see a listing of upcoming shows visit SunshineCathedral.org or pick up a Season Guide. To purchase raffle chances go to sunshinecathedral.org/give and scroll to Performing Arts Series raffle. 197 tickets left.

ANOTHER RAFFLE - CRUISE RAFFLE (win a cruise to countries on 3 continents) - You and a guest could win a chance to sail with Sunshine Cathedral. Please visit HappeningOut.Travel/Sunshine for complete cruise details. Raffle chances can be obtained under the “Give” section of the Cathedral website (sunshinecathedral.org). 197 tickets left.

MEME MINISTRY – Help us promote Sunshine Cathedral by sharing a couple of memes. All you have to do is fill out a form and upload a couple of photos and you will be provided with two images to share on social media. It is as simple as that. For more information, go to sunshinecathedral.org/marketing.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT RELIGIOUS EDUCATION - Religious Education at Sunshine Cathedral is fun and transformative. Be part of it! Since Aug 31 we've been offering Midweek Reading & Reflection on Wednesdays at 7 pm on Facebook. It's 10-20 minutes of a reading and thoughts on the message of the reading. The readings come from contemporary and ancient poets, scriptures of the world traditions, and writings of spiritual teachers. The LAST Midweek Reading and Reflection on Facebook will be presented on Nov. 23.

THEN, we begin an on-site bible study at Sunshine Cathedral Square: Nov. 30, Dec 7, Dec 14, and Dec 21 we will be featuring Drag Bible Story Hour. This is a legit, in depth, transformative educational experience. It is simply being offered by a theologian in drag. It will be fun and fierce and not to be missed!

THEN, in the New Year, we will continue midweek bible study (sans the drag) and we will call the new series Bible and Beer. It will be at the church at 7 pm and led by the senior minister. We will have refreshments (including beer)...no admission, no collection plate, no selling...just come for bible study and pick up a beverage to enjoy (there will almost certainly be a tip jar for love offerings).

Wednesday night religious education is well established and will continue, but the format continues to evolve.

Nov. 16 and Nov. 23 are the last two Facebook Midweek Reading and Reflection times.

Nov. 30 - Dec. 21 we will have Drag Bible Story Hour at Sunshine Cathedral.

Starting in January 2023 (be watching for exact date), we launch Bible and Beer.

GLOBAL FELLOWSHIP – Those who don't live locally but who wish to be part of the Sunshine Cathedral community can learn about the Sunshine Cathedral Global Fellowship by visiting SunshineCathedral.org

OUR SUNDAY BROADCAST is made possible by Happening Out Television Network and donors who support our televised ministry. Happening Out is housed at Sunshine Cathedral Square. Happening Out programming can be viewed on YouTube, Facebook, Amazon Fire, Apple TV, Google TV, and Roku.

SAINTS OF THE WEEK

November 20: Helen Zagat (1893 – 1975) – Helen Zagat is the author of the classic text, Faith & Works. A graduate of Barnard College and a former modern dancer, she became a Divine Science minister and was the pastor of the Church of Divine Unity in NYC. Her ministry spanned more than 30 years. She wrote, “In our awareness of God as Omnipresence, we feel that Spirit cares for each one of us. We are never alone.” She stressed 5 attributes of God: Life, Wisdom, Love, Power, & Substance.

November 21: Nichiren Daishonin (1222 – 1282) - a Japanese Buddhist monk who taught that serenity, happiness, well-being, and enlightenment were available to everyone and could simply be attained through mantra meditation. The mantra he offered was “Nam Myoho Renge Kyo” (referring to a Buddhist text which Nichiren believed contained all that was needed for enlightenment. The text was believed to be so powerfully true that simply chanting its title would impart its benefits). Nichiren Buddhism is now a major Buddhist school of thought.

Quentin Crisp (1908 – 1999) – known for both wit and style, Crisp worked briefly as a “rent boy” and for decades as a model for art colleges. Crisp wrote articles, plays, and books, including The Naked Civil Servant, Becoming a Virgin, and Resident Alien. Quentin Crisp played Queen Elizabeth I in the film Orlando (and appeared in well over a dozen films). Crisp performed on stage with Penny Arcade and starred in a solo show for many years in the UK and in the US. At 72, Crisp moved from the UK to the US and resided in NYC for 18 years. Quentin identified throughout their life as gay, but at age 90 (shortly before dying) accepted and shared that they were transgender. In a Q&A session of a show in LA, Quentin shared this profound theology: “If God is the unifying factor, if God is the cell within the cell, the universe that encompasses the universe – then I would accept prayer and I would accept the idea of God. Don’t forget, almost all religions move toward the unifying factor, the God behind God, the God of Gods...”

November 23: Walatta Petros (1592 – 1642) - Ethiopian nun who had a lifelong friendship with another nun and led a successful movement to drive out foreign missionaries. Walatta Petros is recognized as a saint by the Ethiopian Tewahedo Orthodox Church, which honors her for preserving early African Christian beliefs by expelling Portuguese Jesuit missionaries.

Clement of Alexandria (circa 150 CE – 215 CE) - had a capacity for blending Christian Thought, Platonism, and Stoic philosophy. His thinking contributed to Christian Gnosticism. Clement believed that faith, knowledge, and love were needed for a full experience of the Realm of God.

November 24: Baruch Spinoza (1632 – 1677) - born in Amsterdam because his father had been exiled from Portugal. He was a student of the Jewish Talmud and the Torah, as well as of Kabala. Spinoza was also influenced by Maimonides and Descartes. A pantheist, he believed God to be the very Substance of the Universe. He also challenged people to think in abstract ways, saying, “God is not only the process of thinking, God is also the thought itself.”

November 25: C. Alan Anderson (1930 – 2012) – a Process New Thought philosopher, held a PhD in Philosophy from Boston University. His doctoral dissertation was titled, “Horatio W. Dresser and the Philosophy of New Thought.” He developed what is believed to be the first New Thought website. He wrote God in a Nutshell, The Problem is God: The Selection & Care of Your Personal God, and with his wife (Dr. Deb Whitehouse), New Thought: An American Spirituality.

November 26: Sojourner Truth (1797-1883)—Abolitionist preacher. Born a slave to a Dutch family in New York, Sojourner (a name she chose later in life) was freed when slavery there was abolished. She became noted as a passionate itinerant preacher and a legend even in her own life. She devoted her life to the antislavery cause, and later to women’s suffrage and equal rights. While some thought it was best to set aside the rights of women for a later date, in her mind the two were inseparable.

A SORDID ADVENT - Join us on November 27 at 6 pm for a FREE showing of Sordid Lives.

In just the last couple of months the world has lost both Olivia Newton-John and Leslie Jordan, both of whom were in the cast of the film Sordid Lives.

To show this film at the beginning of Advent is meaningful because the first Sunday in Advent is dedicated to Hope and both Newton-John and Jordan offered hope throughout their careers. Dame Olivia Newton-John lived with cancer on and off for decades and survived two bouts of cancer before the third bout ended her life at 73.

In addition to being a living model of facing difficulties with hope and courage, she also worked to bring hope to Queer people as she was one of the first celebrities to advocate for marriage equality in Australia.

Leslie Jordan, who died at age 67, was a very “out” gay man who brought joy through comedy to people all over the world. He also brought comic relief to us in pandemic by taking to social media just to give us a few chuckles in lockdown.

Jordan frequently spoke about living in recovery. He would speak at Alcoholic Anonymous events to encourage large numbers of people seeking to remain in sobriety. Both Jordan and Newton-John played Queer characters in the film, Sordid Lives.

A gay man and a fierce straight ally, both of whom lived out loud to give people facing discrimination, illness, and addiction hope, were lost to us in 2022, but their work and their generosity live on. We happily begin our Season of Advent, on Hope Sunday, with a showing of Sordid Lives.
