The Call to Worship

This is the day our God has made.

Let us rejoice and be glad in it!

Service of Praise

Crucifer
Deacon Lydya Chapman

Processional Hymn Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence
(Picardy 8.7.8.7.8.7., words by Gerard Moultrie and Durrell Watkins)

Let all mortal flesh keep silence, and with hope and reverence stand, Ponder nothing earthly minded, for our blessing is at hand, Christ our Light within, now shineth, our consciousness to expand.

Lord Jesus was born of Mary and of old on earth he stood, Human and divine as we are, expressing our God, the Good – Jesus gives us all a model of Love lived and understood.

Rank on rank the host of heaven spreads its vanguard on the way, As the Light of light surrounds us from the realms of endless day, That the powers of fear may vanish as the gloom is cleared away.

At Messiah's feet the seraph, cherubim, with sleepless eye, Veil their faces to the presence, as with ceaseless voice they cry, Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, Lord most high!

Opening Prayer (Henri Nouwen, adapted)

Rev Dr Durrell Watkins

Lord Jesus,
Send your holy Spirit upon our preparations for Christmas.
We who have so much to do and seek quiet spaces to hear your voice each day,
We who tend to be anxious over many things look forward to rediscovering the Christ within us.
We who are blessed in so many ways long for the complete joy of your kin-dom.
We whose hearts are sometimes heavy seek the joy of your message.
We are your people; we wish for our light to shine as yours so brilliantly did.
To you we say, "Come Lord Jesus!"
Amen.

Sung Response

Service of Proclamation

The wisdom of Sufi Poet Rumi

Rev Dr Anne Atwell

I am dust particles in sunlight.
I am the round sun...
I am wind in the top of a grove, and surf on the cliff...
The musical air coming through a flute, a spark off a stone, a flickering in metal.
Both candle, and the moth crazy around it.
Rose, and the nightingale lost in the fragrance...
You...the one in all, say who I am. Say I am you.

In these human words, God's voice is heard.
Thanks be to God.

The wisdom of Sikh Tradition

Rev Kevin Tisdol

Why do you go to the forest in search of the Divine? God lives in all, and abides with you, too. As fragrance dwells in a flower, or reflection in a mirror, so the Divine dwells inside everything; seek, therefore, in your own heart.

In these human words, God's voice is heard.

Thanks be to God.

Please rise as you are able.

A Reading from Matthew's Gospel (5.13-16)

Rev Dr Anne Atwell

Jesus said in a sermon: "You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled underfoot.

You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house.

In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your God [who is everywhere present]."

In these human words, God's voice is heard.

Thanks be to God.

Song of Response

Love is the Answer

(England Dan & John Ford Coley)

Shine on us all, set us free

Love is the answer. (x2)

Please be seated.

Prayer Chorus

Let There Be Peace on Earth

*Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me;
let there be peace on earth,
the peace that was meant to be,
with God our creator, family all are we.
Let us walk with each other in perfect harmony.*

*Let peace begin with me,
let this be the moment now,
with every step I take, let this be my solemn vow:
to take each moment and live each moment
in peace eternally.*

Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me.

Confession

Rev Renwick Bell

Advent is a penitential season. Therefore, let us say together:

Congregation:

*For those I may have wronged, I ask for forgiveness.
For those I may have helped, I wish I had done more.
For those I neglected to help, I ask for understanding.
To those who helped me, I thank you with all my heart.
Amen.*

Eucharistic Intentions

Rev Renwick Bell

We celebrate this Eucharist to the glory of God and with special intentions for the Sunshine Cathedral Global Fellowship and location congregation, and with people all over the world we pray,

May peace prevail on earth!

In praise of the Source of life, in hope for a world that is fair and abundant for everyone, trusting grace equal to every need, acknowledging that we all make mistakes and at times need new chances, and seeking harmony and joy in our lives, we continue our prayers using the words of Jesus:

Model Prayer

*Creator which art in heaven, hallowed be thy names.
Thy kin-dom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And leave us not in temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.*

Please be seated.

The Lord's Supper

Rev Dr Anne Atwell

One: In the upper room, before being arrested, Jesus sat at table with friends for a Passover meal. After supper, he took a piece of leftover bread and asked that his friends remember him when sharing the ritual meal. Then he took Elijah's cup, and likewise asked that in future, during the feast, he be remembered.

Sung Response

*Cup of blessing that we share, does it not our faith declare?
Is it not in gratitude, that we take this sacred food?*

As one body, we are fed, Love we share, one Cup, one Bread.

Is it not one bread we break? Of God's goodness all partake.

*Casting out distrust and fear, let us love with hearts sincere!
One by God's design are we: let us live in unity.*

Invitation to Communion

Rev Kevin Tisdol

These are the gifts of God for all the people of God.
Thanks be to God.

Communion is Shared

Communion Song

O Come, O Come Emmanuel

O come, O come, Emmanuel, and with your captive children dwell. Give comfort to all exiles here, and to the aching heart bid cheer. Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come within as Love to dwell.

O come, you Splendor very bright, as joy that never yields to might. O come, and turn all hearts to peace, that greed and war at last shall cease. Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come within as Truth to dwell.

O come, you Dayspring, come and cheer our spirits by our presence here. And dawn in every broken soul as vision that can see the whole. Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come within as Light to dwell.

O come, you Wisdom, from on high, from depths that hide within a sigh, to temper knowledge with our care, to render every act a prayer. Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come within as Hope to dwell.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Rev Kevin Tisdol

Please rise as you are able.

The Prayer of Protection

*The light of God surrounds us; the love of God enfolds us.
The power of God protects us; the presence of God watches over us. Wherever we are, God is.*

Benediction

Rev Dr Durrell Watkins

Final Song

Lean on Me

Some times in our lives we all have pain, we all have sorrow. But if we are wise we know that there's always tomorrow.

*Lean on me when you're not strong – and I'll be your friend,
I'll help you carry on; for it won't be long 'til I'm gonna need somebody to lean on.*

Please swallow your pride if I have things you need to borrow. But no one can fill those of your needs that you won't let show.

Lean on me when you're not strong – and I'll be your friend, I'll help you carry on; for it won't be long 'til I'm gonna need somebody to lean on.

Just call on me dearest when you need a hand. We all need somebody to lean on. I just might have a problem that you'd understand. We all need somebody to lean on.

If there is a load you have to bear that you can't carry, I'm right up the road, I'll share your load if you just call me.

Lean on me when you're not strong – and I'll be your friend, I'll help you carry on; for it won't be long 'til I'm gonna need somebody to lean on.

Commissioning

One: Our worship has ended. Let our service begin!
All: Thanks be to God!

SunBurst Cathedral News

ADVENT - Advent is a season of the liturgical year observed in most Christian denominations as a time of expectant waiting and preparation for both the celebration of the Nativity of Christ at Christmas and the return of Christ (sometimes called "second coming"). At Sunshine Cathedral, we suggest that "we" are the return of Christ, those of us who, in his name, share the good news of God as love and who seek to demonstrate love by working for justice, showing compassion, and by living humbly before the mysteries of life.

DRAG BIBLE STORY HOUR! – Save the dates: Nov 30, Dec 7, Dec 14, and Dec 21 at 7 pm.

Did you know that Drag Story Hour has become a popular program in public libraries, and that Drag Story Hour has come under attack by anti-LGBTQ forces?

Did you know that there is proposed legislation in various states meant to prohibit gender affirming medical, psychological, and social care?

There are efforts in some areas to label as a sexual venue any place that allows drag performance?

And of course we know about "don't say gay" and "don't say trans" bills that have already passed.

In response to homophobic, transphobic, and anti-drag attacks, Sunshine Cathedral is offering Drag Bible Story Hour: a legit bible study that takes place while affirming and celebrating the art of drag. Please join us every Wednesday in Advent for Drag Bible Story Hour at 7 pm.

Nov. 30 – Drag Queens in the Bible

Dec. 7 – Our Non-Binary Bible

Dec. 14 – Jesus' Queer Ancestry

Dec. 21 – Jesus' Queer Family

SAINTS OF THE WEEK

December 4: St. Barbara (d. 306) – Barbara, a pagan, embraced the Christian faith and dedicated herself to serving the Lord as a consecrated virgin. Her father tried to arrange marriages for her but she always refused. Her father had a bathhouse built for her. It became a place of healing. St. Simeon Metaphrastes compared it to the stream of Jordan.

In time, Barbara ran away from her father but he found her (with the help of a shepherd who, as a result of his helping to capture Barbara, found his flocks, according to legend, turned to locusts) and locked her away. Still she would not marry nor renounce her newfound faith. Prayer gave her the strength to endure her trials.

Finally, Barbara was condemned to death by beheading by her father. Her martyrdom took place on December 4th. Soon after, her father was struck by lightning.

December 5: John A.T. Robinson (1919 – 1983) was a bible scholar, Church of England bishop, and the Dean of Trinity College, Cambridge. He was a leader in liberal Christian theology and helped give shape to the field of secular theology. He believed in “universal salvation.” His most popular book was “Honest to God” and he was a major influence on Bishop John S. Spong.

December 6: St. Nicholas (270-343) – known for compassion, courage, and generosity. He is the patron of sailors, pawnbrokers, and children. When his parents died, he gave most of his inheritance to the poor. Because of various miracles attributed to his intercession, he is sometimes called Nicholas the Wonderworker. He was a bishop in Asia Minor during the time of the Roman Empire. His great deeds as told in legend include resurrecting three children who had been killed by a nefarious butcher who killed them and intended to cure them as ham, offering himself in exchange for the release of captives, and attending the first Council of Nicea (his name is included in some records but not in others).

December 8: Bodhi Day - commemorates the day that the historical Buddha, Siddhartha Gautama (Shakyamuni), achieved awakening or enlightenment (bodhi in Sanskrit). Siddhartha had recently forsaken extreme ascetic practices and decided to sit under a tree and meditate until he found the root of suffering, and how to liberate oneself from it.

Pavel Florensky (1882-1937) - Russian Orthodox priest who wrote a theology of same-sex love in the early 20th century. He was executed as part of a Soviet anti-religious campaign.

December 9: Blessed Juan Diego (16th century)—Witness to Our Lady of Guadalupe. Mary appeared, it is said, to Juan Diego with dark skin and Indian features, surrounded by symbols of Indian religion and culture. She spoke to him in his native Nahuatl, not Spanish. The message to the church was clear: it must not serve as the agent of colonial oppression, but be rooted in the experience of the people.

December 10: Thomas Merton (1915-1968)—Trappist monk. An American priest whose writings are among the greatest spiritual works of our time, Merton initially turned his back on the world by seeking solitude at the Abbey of Gethsemane in Kentucky. In time he came to understand a deep solidarity with humanity and concern for issues of peace and justice. He also had a strong interest in Eastern spirituality, especially Zen Buddhism, from which he learned that the path to God is found in experience, not analysis.
